

Before the Indiana List any trip to Wells Fargo resulted in telemarketers interrupting our families dinner and early evening. Their tactics were barely honest and along way from people I desired to caontact. One tactic was to pretend to follow up on your mortgage in order to "peddle" junk or a "new" credit card. The Indiana List retuned family time to our family and when I need the Bank--I either drive there or call them.
LEAVE THE INDIANA LIST ALONE--PLEASE
